

DEFINITION OF PARENT INVOLVEMENT

Parent Involvement is the participation of parents in every facet of children's education and development from birth to adulthood, recognizing that parents are the primary influence in children's lives. Parent involvement takes many forms, including:

- Two-way communication between parents and schools
- Supporting parents as children's primary educators and integral to their learning
- Encouraging parents to participate in school activities
- Sharing responsibility for decision making about children's education, health, and well-being

Practical ways for parents to boost their level of involvement:

- Be present at school when possible
- Show interest in kids' schoolwork
- Keep a positive attitude towards education
